

Archaeology in Marlow

Dr Jennifer Foster

(Honorary Research Fellow at the University of Reading) will be giving a talk entitled

'Sutton Hoo'

Jennifer will report on the archaeology of the most important and exciting burial of the Anglo-Saxon period : that of Sutton Hoo.

She will particularly examine the pre-War excavation, recent analyses of the finds and the ship that was found in the grave. Who was buried at Sutton Hoo?

Jennifer will also touch on the rest of the cemetery, excavated in more recent times.

8.00 p.m., Thursday, 23rd May, in the Main Hall, Liston Hall, Marlow, SL7 1DD

This an AIM/MAS joint talk organised by AIM

Members of AIM & MAS £3.00, non-members £4.50

Free parking at the adjacent car park after 7.00 pm

For details of AIM's other activities and how you can join, either log on to our website, www.archaeologyinmarlow.org.uk, or contact: John Laker, 9 Spinfield Lane, Marlow, Bucks, SL7 2JT. Tel: 01628 481792